Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's arguments, see paper #3, filed 8/15/2001, with respect to claims 1-4, 7, 10-11, 13-16, 18-22, and 25-36 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Applicant has not made of record all of those references known with respect to the References Cited in the parent application.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-4, 7, 10-11, 13-16, 18-22, and 25-36 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-10 of U. S. Patent No. 6,252,946 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: Each of the currently presented claims is merely a presentation of a lesser number of limitations in the already patented claims and is thus a broader representation of the claims already patented.

Art Unit: 2645

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Conclusion

4. Claims 1-4, 7, 10-11, 13-16, 18-22, and 25-36 are allowable over the prior art of record at this time in view of the applicants remarks filed 8/15/2001. A terminal Disclaimer is required.

5. The prior art previously made of record in the parent application, but not made of record in this application by the applicant, and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
